Advertising Opportunities

Advertisements on Planning Tank are unlike your regular digital marketing ads and Newspaper ads. When you decide make Planning Tank your advertising partner, you receive much more!

We focus on purpose driven advertising and utilizing your ad spending on providing everyone with a better and more meaningful service.

Some of the benefits and reasons to advertise with us include:

- You contribute and help us in our mission to bring a positive change for the whole Planning fraternity
- Help us come up with more events for students & professionals!
- Get identified as leaders and change makers instead of just another advertiser trying to sell their product & intruding user’s privacy!
- Freedom from shady and dubious algorithms & cookies to deliver your ads
- Your ad spending is used to bring about a real change instead of ending up in the deep pockets of MNCs and tech giants!
- Support of team members, volunteers and contributors and encourage them to contribute towards the cause
- Save $$$ on your digital ad spending as we offer cost effective advertising through various advertising options!
Grab the opportunity to outstand among the 40+ colleges imparting planning education. Be a part of the change and craft your identity among the ever increasing number of educational intuitions recognized by UGC, ITPI, AICTE, various state & central government departments.

With our 7+ years of experience in building the India’s first and largest platform for Planners, you get much more. We help you build real connections, get your voice heard and receive feedback from the people who matter!

Your students, alumnus will take pride and love to see their Advertising with us is not limited to having your ads on our platform, but a lot more.

Get in touch for getting featured and explore the advertising opportunities with Planning Tank!
Display Advertising

We offer different types of advertising opportunity to meet various needs. Display advertising is the most preferred and widely known form of advertising which we offer. Apart from display ads, we also provide guest posting, reviews, newsletter ads and sponsored content, etc.

Understanding “Academia” & “Others”

These are the two pricing categories which we offer. Any advertiser such as educational institution, Think Tanks, consultancies and other entities which are involved in any kind of educational, scholarship, research or student oriented activities are considered under the “Academia” pricing. All other kinds of advertisers are considered under the “Others” category which has a slightly higher pricing.

Educating & empowering the students and research is one of the focus areas and thus we try to provide such advertisers a better platform and create an enabling environment for them. Such approach helps us in keeping the ads as relevant as possible. Base pricing per month (INR) for display ads on https://planningtank.com and https://planningtimes.net (now available for advertising!) are as follows:

Note: Apart from https://planningtank.com, additions such as Job Portal, Discussion Forum, and Newsletter – Planning Times are now available for advertising. Please check ‘Extras/Add Ons’ section (pg 12) for more information.

Note 1: Applicable taxes extra (GST – 18%)

Note 2: Maximum number of ads by 1 advertiser is limited to 3 per device type and 5 units combined.

All prices in INR, pricing information is monthly (unless otherwise mentioned). Planning Tank do not provide any performance/ click tracking (unless agreed upon). We provide display advertisements based on the duration.
How to Calculate/Apply Discount?

Since we offer multiple discounts, it can be confusing on how we apply the discounts. We are providing a simple example so as to provide you with a transparent pricing structure.

1. Members only discount is applied first on monthly base price of respective category (Academia/Others).

2. Duration based discount is applied second on the monthly base price.

3. Wherever applicable, expenditure based discount i.e. monthly commitment is applied third for all the months/duration.

4. Tax is charged on the amount after applying the discounts.

Why are our prices so low? Is there a catch?

Planning Tank is run by a team of purpose driven individuals who work in different capacities. The goal is not the profit making but rather increasing awareness, empowering planners & giving back to the community. We work on very small costs which is used to reward our contributors & team members. Our members often give up that small reward too and in that case we invest that small amount in building our platform so as to make it more useful for everyone.

Tech giants such as Google, Microsoft & Amazon receive billions of dollars in funding from Wall Street and have similar expenditure in operational cost. However, we are focused on a few aspects with most of our members working as volunteers or part time. This helps us in keeping costs low and maximising the value on investment.

Our cost effective advertising is majorly used to improve the platform and thus in return provide you an increased ROI on whatever spending you do with us. Apart from improvement of the platform, we use the revenue to host competitions and help educational activities.

So, by advertising with us, you not only build your brand but also contribute towards a better community & bringing about a positive change!
Planning Tank is working with various partners and platforms to meet their diverse needs.
